

THE THREE PEAKS CHALLENGE

GENERAL WAITING LIST AND 2019 ENTRY ALLOCATION

In the entry allocation process for 2019, up to fifty entries will be allocated at the organisers' discretion. This will include, amongst other things, the top three men and women from 2018, those going for permanent numbers and other significant milestones, and a certain limited number of Permanent Number people.

The balance of entries, which amounts to one hundred, will be drawn from the General Waiting List, as it appears here, according to the order in which people joined or rejoined the list.

Please note:

- Should you decide, at any stage, that you no longer wish to take part in future Three Peaks Challenge events and would like to be removed from the waiting list, kindly let us know.
- Please familiarise yourself with all rules and conditions, including those surrounding withdrawals, substitutions, removals, joining, rejoining etc. (at the end of this document).

 Permanent Number people

The event organisers may, at their discretion, 'pluck' names of Permanent Number people from the waiting list and include them in their "First Fifty" entry allocation.

Permanent Number people on the waiting list may, but not necessarily, also substitute other Permanent Number people who withdraw, who were part of the event organisers' "First Fifty".

The Permanent Number people who may be included in the "First Fifty" are not limited to the people on the General Waiting List. There are a number who have not taken part in recent years who have expressed an interest in returning to the event.

WITHDRAWALS AND SUBSTITUTIONS; JOINING AND REJOINING THE WAITING LIST

Withdrawing from the event:

All withdrawals must be communicated in writing, to the event organisers. Substitutions are made by the organisers, according to the waiting list.

Once you have successfully completed the event:

Should you wish to take part in the Three Peaks Challenge in the future, you will need to rejoin the waiting list, in writing, to the event organisers. This may only be done after the official 14-hour cut-off, i.e. after 19:00 (not a minute before) on the day of the Three Peaks Challenge and not while the event is still being run.

In the event of you entering and then withdrawing from the Three Peaks Challenge, prior to it taking place:

Provided that you have withdrawn before the cut-off for substitutions has closed (usually four to five days before the event), you will occupy the place on the waiting list vacated by the person who substitutes you. Should a replacement not be found in time, you will move to the bottom of the list.

In the event of you entering and then withdrawing from the Three Peaks Challenge, during the period between the cut-off for substitutions and the event taking place:

You will be required to request, in writing to the event organisers, to rejoin the waiting list at the bottom of the list. No substitutions are done after the substitutions cut-off date.

The cut-off for substitutions is usually four to five days before the event.

In the event of you starting and then withdrawing during the event:

You will need to request in writing, to the organisers, to rejoin the waiting list at the bottom of the list.

In the event of “no shows” on the morning of the event:

“No shows” without a valid reason and without reasonable communication with the organisers cannot be tolerated. People who do not show up will need to justify, in writing to the organisers, why they believe they should be able to rejoin the waiting list. Should the request be accepted, they will join at the bottom of the list.

Your name may not appear on the waiting list more than once.

You may choose to be unavailable for a particular year in which you are ‘eligible’ for an entry or have been offered an entry. However, you may not ‘book’ or reserve a year as such.

Once you have officially entered the event: your name will be removed from the waiting list.

Removal from the waiting list – people may be removed from the list for the following reasons:

- for continuously declining offers to enter the event, having been given reasonable notice from the organisers - one may not remain on the waiting list indefinitely
- for consistently failing to respond to communication – emails etc. – from the organisers
- for reasons pertaining to malpractice, bad ethics, bringing the Three Peaks Challenge or the sport of running in general, into disrepute etc. (at the discretion of the organisers)
- for medical reasons
- on entering the event – refer to procedure for rejoining the waiting list

The event organisers may, at their discretion, ‘pluck’ names from the waiting list and include them in their “First Fifty” entry allocation – this could typically be anybody they consider particularly worthy of an entry, such as extra-dedicated helpers, top runners, Permanent Number people etc.
